

RiverPlay!

Saturday, August 28 | 12-4 p.m.

Walk, paddle, or ride your way around Eugene-Springfield's Willamette River paths and enjoy FREE activities celebrating the history, culture, ecology and recreation of #OurWillamette!

1

Maurie Jacobs Park / River House Beach 301 N. Adams, Eugene

Learn about safe river recreation and try a kayak, raft or stand up paddleboard! Meet Godukut the wooden canoe and climb aboard a real Fire Rescue Boat!

Presented by: City of Eugene, Oregon State Marine Board

3

Alton Baker Park 100 Day Island Road, Eugene

Try fly casting, go on a NatureQuest* or try the self-guided PaddleCross Challenge from the Alton Baker Canoe Canal.

*pre-registration required: <https://bit.ly/WRFNatureQues>

Presented by: Nearby Nature, University of Oregon Outdoor Program, McKenzie Fly Fishers, Willamette Kayak and Canoe Club

2

EWEB Plaza / Riverfront Park 500 E. 4th Avenue, Eugene

Enjoy storytelling, traditional and modern Indigenous performances, and try your hand at conducting the Eugene Symphony! Non-alcoholic brew provided by WildCraft Cider Works.

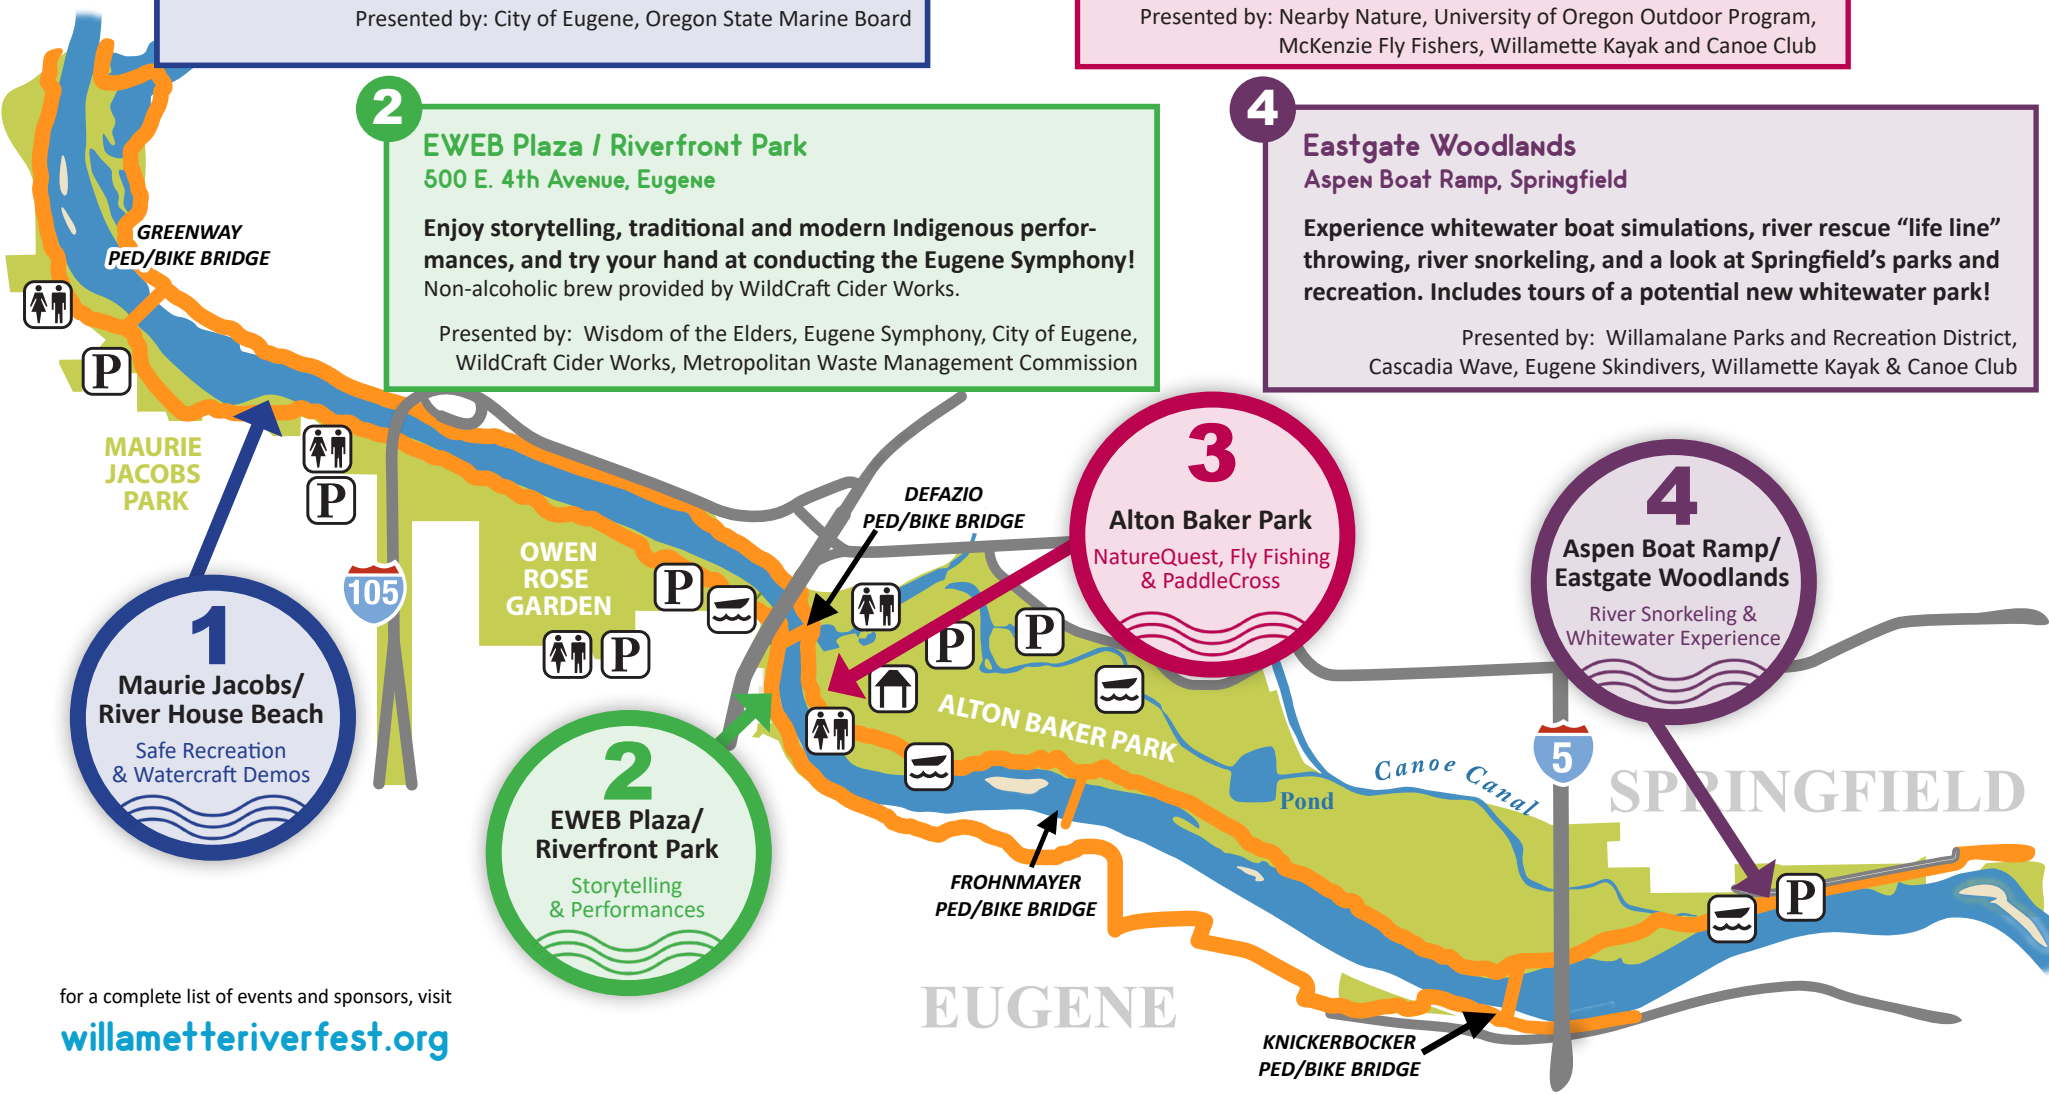

Presented by: Wisdom of the Elders, Eugene Symphony, City of Eugene, WildCraft Cider Works, Metropolitan Waste Management Commission

4

Eastgate Woodlands Aspen Boat Ramp, Springfield

Experience whitewater boat simulations, river rescue "life line" throwing, river snorkeling, and a look at Springfield's parks and recreation. Includes tours of a potential new whitewater park!

Presented by: Willamalane Parks and Recreation District, Cascadia Wave, Eugene Skindivers, Willamette Kayak & Canoe Club

1
Maurie Jacobs/
River House Beach
Safe Recreation
& Watercraft Demos

2
EWEB Plaza/
Riverfront Park
Storytelling
& Performances

3
Alton Baker Park
NatureQuest, Fly Fishing
& PaddleCross

4
Aspen Boat Ramp/
Eastgate Woodlands
River Snorkeling &
Whitewater Experience